Technology is constantly advancing and becoming more accessible, therefore, there is a growing epidemic of identity theft. Identity theft is one of the leading forms of theft in America with nine million Americans losing their life savings to dishonest individuals. Founded in 2005, LifeLock is an identity theft company which provides a system that protects an individual against fraud. Being a distributor helps to not only eradicate fraud for individuals, but also to bring in extra income.

Lifelock distributors help to protect against fraud.

Instructions

1

A representative contacts you with a promo code. Send in your application. If you are approved, an account is created and you are contacted by a business development representative with a promo code. The business development representative explains the intricacies, which gives you a better understanding of distribution.

2

A pay-per-click campaign will benefit you. Facilitate web traffic to attract more viewers to LifeLock's website. If you have a business on the web, you can launch a pay-per-click campaign that benefits you and LifeLock. Also attract traffic to the website by adding a new blog entry or link to an advertorial.
